The recent stories which have been circulated regarding the unfriendly attitude of some of the Americans towards the foreign cycling stars, who are entered in the international six-day bicycle championship which begins in Madison Square Garden next Sunday night, and intimations that the visitors will receive some rough treatment during the race, have not caused the foreigners any loss of sleep.

"Jean Gougoltz, the eight-day champion of Europe, who has ridden in a half dozen six-day races in this country and is familiar with all the tricks employed by the American riders to gain an advantage, in speaking for himself and his associates, says:—

"We want to win and win fairly, and I think the championship will be taken across the water by some one of our men. We have some pretty speedy riders over here this time, and I guess the American boys fear they might not be able to hold the pace we will set."

A. G. Hatcher, who will be referee of the six-day race, said yesterday that no foul riding would be tolerated. All the men will be warned against using unfair methods to gain an advantage, and the offenders will be summarily punished.

Michael in Shape.

One of the best performances recorded this year was the riding of a mile in 1.23 by Jimmy Michael, the Welsh midget, who is matched to race George Leander, the six-day champion, fifteen miles behind motor machines in Madison Square Garden on Saturday night.

Michael has only done slow work since his arrival from Europe two weeks ago, but yesterday he decided to try himself out in a speed test at ten miles. Four watches were held by competent timers, Tom Eek, Jim Richards, Milton Henry, the well-known jockey, and Victor Breyer, editor of the Velo, the cycling authority of Europe.

For the first five miles Pace-maker Hoffman was willing to carry Jimmy along at a fair pace, the five miles averaging 1.23. Gradually he increased the speed and the midget Michael hung on and pedaled in the same easy and graceful manner as he did when he was the premier pace follower of the world.

Turning into the stretch in the last lap Jimmy jumped away from his motor and finished five lengths in front, the watches catching him in 1.23 for the last mile. The best previous mile ever ridden over the track, which is a slow one, was 1.24-5.

Michael feels certain he will defeat Leander on Saturday and in record time.

BRONX "CRIB" TOURNEY.

In the cribbage tournament of the Bronx Club, a prominent Bronx organization, which is being held at the club house, the champion, Cashman, leads with a percentage of 73.8. Corner O'Gorman holds second place with 54.1 per cent, while Deputy Corner Bailey follows him closely with 53.5 per cent. Joseph Barry, candidate for Borough President in the recent election, and Michael, who has been playing cribbage since he was a boy, are also in the contest, each having a percentage of over 50 per cent.

ENTRIES FOR BIG RACE.

- (33) McDonald and (34) Adam Beyerman, New England team.
- (35) Jimmy Moran and (36) Hugh McLean, Scotch-Irish team.

The race will be a continuous 142 hours' contest, contestants having the right to rest and ride as they may see fit, except that no rider must be on the track more than twelve hours in each twenty-four hours. Any lap or laps gained unfairly through one or more contestants sacrificing himself or themselves for one or more others will not be allowed, and those implicated in such unfair riding must be disciplined for the race, and in the judgment of the Board of Referees may be reported to the N. C. A. Board of Control for punishment. If two riders by changing place and solely through their own efforts succeed in gaining a lap such pacemaking shall be considered legitimate, but if only one of the two riders succeeds in gaining a lap such riders shall not be credited with the lap gained. If a rider is found to have aided another rider in gaining a lap, the rider who aided shall be considered to have aided in the gain of a lap, and the rider who aided shall be considered to have aided in the gain of a lap, and the rider who aided shall be considered to have aided in the gain of a lap.

TOMMY MURPHY WON; REFEREE SAID "DRAW"

Tommy Murphy, the bantam-weight fighter of the New Polo A. A. of this city, beat Bobby Flynn about as badly as Bob Fitzsimmons beat George Gardner, but an Eddie Graney was not referee, and so the best Murphy got was a draw. At least that was what the majority of the spectators thought.

The fight was held somewhere in New Jersey. The vicinity of Port Lee was the place, but the exact location could not be discerned, owing to the blinding snow storm through which the three hundred or more men fought their way to see the bout.

Like two cats on a fence ready for a fight was what the pair looked like squaring off. One seemed afraid of the other. They pawed at each other for nearly the full three minutes of the first round, and when it was over neither had worked up the slightest kind of a sweat. When the second round was those of Murphy.

RING GOSSIP AND BOXING NEWS

Marvin Hart, the light heavy-weight of Louisville, has drawn the color line. After Hart had finished his great battle with "Kid" Carter in Boston Tuesday night, Joe Walcott, the colored welter-weight champion, had it announced from the ring that he would fight Hart. The latter immediately turned to the announcer and said: "I am a Southern gentleman and am compelled to draw the color line."

"NO O'BRIEN-RYAN SIX-ROUND 'GO.' The report that Tommy Ryan and Philadelphia Jack O'Brien have been matched to meet in a six-round bout before one of the clubs in Philadelphia on New Year's afternoon seems to be an error. Before O'Brien left San Francisco for the East he came to an understanding with Morris Levy, matchmaker of the Hayes Valley A. C., of 'Frisco, that he shall handle the bout between him and Ryan, which is to be decided in the spring. O'Brien has accepted Levy's offer for the bout, which is a guaranteed purse of $5,000, with the privilege of taking 50 per cent. of the gross receipts.

"M'KEEVER TO MEET TONY CAPONI. The twenty-round bout between Charley McKeever, of Philadelphia, and Tony Caponi, the Italian fighter, of Chicago, will be decided a Minneapolis on Dec. 5. Articles of agreement have been signed by both men and forfeits posted. If McKeever beats Caponi he will be matched to box Hugo Kelly, of Chicago, for six rounds before one of the clubs in the Windy City. McKeever defeated Kelly in a ten-round bout at Milwaukee a few weeks ago.

"KELLY TO TACKLE LANGFORD. Jimmy Kelly, the east side light-weight, was matched last night by his manager, Florrie Barnett, to meet Sam Langford, of Boston, in a twelve-round bout before the Central A. C., of Boston, on Saturday evening, Dec. 12. Kelly will have to fight his best in order to beat Langford, as the latter is so well thought of by the sporting fraternity of Boston that they are ready to back him against Joe Gans at 133 pounds for $5,000 a side.

"WILLIE FITZGERALD'S NEXT FIGHT. Willie Fitzgerald, the light-weight fighter, who recently knocked out Otto Sieloff in three rounds, has been matched to fight Mike Ward, the Western fighter, before the Port Huron A. C., on Dec. 18. They will clash in a ten-round bout. Fitzgerald has won the last four fights which he has fought.

ing and no decision will be given out until to-morrow. It all hinges on whether or not the Wichita meeting was advertised, which looks to horsemen as if George Ketchum had won a distinct victory in the fight made on the Oct. 2, 1903, mark of 1:50 3-4.

Old Garrison Dead. NEWBURGH, N. Y., Dec. 3.—Joshua A. Ward, one of the noted orators of this country, died at his home at Cornwall, N. Y., yesterday of pneumonia, which followed a long spell of sickness. Ward was born in Newburg and was a little over sixty years old.

HUGHEY M'GOVERN BEATS ALLEN IN HOT CONTEST.

Terry's Young Brother Has Same Fighting Streak—Gives Quaker Terrible Drubbing.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—Hughey McGovern and Johnny Allen fought one of the fastest six-round contests put up by bantam-weights in a long while before the National Athletic Club last night. Allen saw a chance to establish a reputation by knocking out the brother of the far-famed "Terrible Terry," and from the sound of the gong in the first round went in to knock out his man.

McGovern was the master mechanic of the situation when the bell sounded at the end. He did not hear the final bell and landed a right hook on the Butcher boy's jaw and Allen walloped a right to Hughey's head. They clinched and the seconds of both rushed to separate them. It looked like free fight when Capt. of Police Thompson sent four of his men into the ring arena.

The slight of the policemen ended what looked like an infant riot, and thus the greatest contest seen here in years with bantam-weights as the principals came to an end.

PUT SOAP ON HIS CUE.

Charlie Grogan defeated Charlie Burns last night in their third series of the Harlem pool journey by a score of 105 to 80. Some one "monkeyed" with Burns's cue, putting "soap" on it, causing him to miss several easy shots before the trick was discovered. The St. Louis Kid and Charlie Otis will come together on Thursday night at 1622 Madison avenue.

GANS-LANGFORD MATCH.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BOSTON, Dec. 3.—A match for the world's championship between Joe Gans, of Baltimore, and Sam Langford, the New England champion, has been ratified here. As an incentive for Gans to make the match the backer of Langford made a side issue of $500, and it was decided that the fight take place before the Criterion Club, of this city, next Tuesday evening, Dec. 8.

MOHAWKS VS. OLYMPICS.

In order to settle the question of supremacy on the gridiron the Mohawks A. C., the champions of the Bronx, and the Olympic A. C. have decided to meet again on Sunday. The game will be played on Harlem Oval, at One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street and Madison avenue, and both teams will be strengthened for the final struggle.
